

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to formally acknowledge that Mr. Swapnil Kumar, Director of Technology at Massachusetts Institute of Technology participated in our events in London.

The events, hosted by C-Vision International, brought together select technology and cloud infrastructure leaders for an evening of strategic discussion. Attendees engaged in thought-provoking conversations around accelerating Business Agility, real-time threat detection, and the challenges of migrating workloads in the digital age.

Mr Kumar's participation in this exclusive industry event reflects his ongoing commitment to advancing technology practices in different fields.

If you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
